

Accommodation

Accommodation at Hawley is offered in the Main House, Stables and Vineyard Pavilion, sleeping a total of up to 40 guests. The spacious rooms have been individually appointed with antique furnishings, oversized beds and original works of art. All rooms have ensuite bathrooms and are equipped with televisions, hairdryers, clock radios, tea and coffee, desk, mini-bar, iron and ironing board, electric blankets and fresh flowers.

The Main House

Hawley House itself has five ensuite bedrooms. There are two spacious Private Balcony rooms featuring breathtaking views across gardens, pools, beaches, the bay and the Narawntapu National Park. Rooms are airy, original and unique, baths in bathrooms. "Governess" family room - 2 Bedroom Balcony Suite - Featuring superb leadlight windows, and separate spacious & private sitting room opening onto a balcony with views across the northern gardens. "Garden Rooms" - The two large period Victorian rooms downstairs open onto a sandstone-paved courtyard and overlook the lovely northern gardens. One has a kitchenette.

The Stables & Lofts

The Stables offer eight ensuite bedrooms, all of which have period furniture and original paintings. On the first floor, there are four Loft rooms (below) with wooden vaulted ceilings and King size bed. They have french doors opening onto a balcony with sea and garden views.

Downstairs are four 'Stables' rooms, three with generous corner Spa baths (below). Each has a Queen size bed plus a single bed in a separate contained alcove. The fourth 'Stable' room is designed for wheelchair access.

The Vineyard Pavilion

This house is outstandingly set behind Hawley House in the vineyards. Fully self contained with four bedrooms and two bathrooms the house comfortably sleeps groups of up to ten people. An outdoor deck entertainment area features a BBQ & gazebo. Original artwork, period furniture including a giant four-poster bed add to the ambiance. Panoramic views across the farm, the vineyards, to the sea, to the National Park and inland to the Western Tiers are a feature of this house.
